

APTO Meeting Notes
November 20, 2019

Meeting called to order at 6:30 pm

Following attendees signed in: Johnna Coleman, Sarah Hunt, Becky Cudini, Craig Mccalla, Sherri Ackerman, Christy Malene, Amy Reiser, Kate Hoffman, and John Lockard

Welcome and introductions

Update from Craig

- 100% turn out for conferences
- First snow day – will not leave early once students arrive at school
- Indigenous people assembly was successful
- Expect to see new signs in front of the building
- Grant money being used by teachers
- Entire interior of the building will be painted this spring and summer
- Seeing lots of acts of kindness from students

Budget update from John

Volunteer update

- Volunteers needed for Movie night – four locations of the movie, 2 with food permitted, two without food permitted
- Dec13-14 – Anchor Players Performance at 6:30 pm, doors open at 6:00 pm
- Dec 19 – Cookie Dash – bakers needed

STEM night update – received grant for Alexandria’s nature bus and animal display from Howell Nature Center

One person voiced concerned over the proposed Avalon housing project

Principal Mccalla explained the building’s safety and security measures that keep our students and staff safe

Meeting adjourned at 7:20 pm